Lessons To Learn From the Life of Solomon

Series: Big Dummies Of The Bible

Sunday, July 29, 2018 Pastor Rick Wilson Denbigh Baptist Church

The life we live determines the legacy we leave.

How wise was Solomon? – I Kings 3:1-15

- Solomon's anointing as king was a long shot.
- Solomon was young and inexperienced.
- Solomon was charged to keep God's commandments.
- Solomon was given wisdom, and along with it honor and riches.

Solomon's wisdom is illustrated. – I Kings 3:16-28

- In an act of God-given wisdom, Solomon found who the true mother was with evidence as conclusive as DNA.
- "Solomon did not look for blood links but love links." – Stephen Miller

Solomon's dumbness: Solomon broke God's first command.
"You shall have no other gods before me" – Exodus 20:3

There are lessons to learn from Solomon's failures.

I Kings 3:3-4/Leviticus 17:35

I Kings 11:1-8 / Deuteronomy 7:3-5, Ecclesiastes 9:9, Proverbs 5

There are steps to sin and judgment.

- Tolerance leads to compromise.
- Compromise leads to idolatry.
- Idolatry leads to judgment.

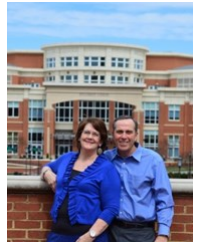

God demands our undivided worship.

Missionary of the Month:

Jeff & Kim Abernethy

Campus Bible Fellowship (CBF) International
(brownesferryabers@gmail.com)

Jeff and Kim Abernethy minister to students at University of NC -Charlotte. This fall will mark the 17th year that they have ministered through Wednesday night home-made dinners followed with a Bible study, Game nights, Retreats, and One-on-One Discipleship. God's preparation for this ministry has given them special bonds with international as well as U.S. students. God has provided the funds to provide a hot meal to any student that attends their CBF weekly Bible study that is held on campus! They are praising the Lord for also providing the Student Union area to meet in for the 2018-2019 year. Several students come solely for the food to start with and then come again and again as they see that the warmth and depth of CBF extends farther than just the meal that is served. Please pray for the Abernethy's ministry and for international students who have returned home with newfound faith will be "missionaries" in their own country!
